no hell below us
Above us only sky...

EDWIN ORTIZ 1955-1972

"WHEN I MUST LEAVE YOU"

When I must leave you
for a little while
Please do not grieve
and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you
through the years,
But start out bravely
with a gallant smile;
And for my sake and in my name
Live on and do all things the same,
Feed not your loneliness
on empty days,
But fill each waking hour
in useful ways,
Reach out your hand
in comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you
and hold you near;
And never, never
be afraid to die,
For I am waiting for you in the sky!

WISHES

I wish you joy in life
Eyes to see the night come on
Ears to hear the music
In the waking of the dawn

I wish you grace to give
And the courage to receive
And the willingness to live
By the faith that you believe

Most of all I wish for you
From daybreak
Knowledge that truth is true
And love is part of truth.

Of all the gifts
a man can receive
to make his life

The most important is not money, nor

The most beautiful gift a man can receive is Friendship.

"PEANUT BUTTER AND JELLY BLUES"

Two slabs of bread, so soft and white,
Is what I feel on first bite,
But to my surprise when I chew,
There's grape jelly through and through,
What's this stuff my taste buds utter,
Could it be peanut butter,
It is, It is, oh happy day,
P. B. J. is the only way.

AUTUMN FRIEND

She stood beneath the leafless tree,
She had two eyes but couldn't see,
The times she had, were the best,
Now just memories, like the rest,
With hair and eyes black as night,
She caught my glance at first sight,
We used to laugh, we used to smoke,
Always ready with a joke,
On her first day of womanhood,
She did just what she claimed she would,
She left to live with a no good druggy,
He ate the chalk which made him buggy,
If this girl you should happen to see,
Tell her I wait by the leafless tree.

THE THIRTY-ONE FLAVORED DREAM

While searching for something to eat,
I decided on a smooth cool treat,
My stomach was filled with pain,
Until sight of sweet Lorraine,
With a sherbert soft tone,
She asked me what flavor cone,
My feelings were quite strange,
When I dropped all my change,
Finally while replying fudge ripple,
She smiled and caused quite a dimple,
She handed me my stuff,
Couldn't thank her enough,
I'm in love with what I seen,
Sweet Lorraine, the ice cream queen.

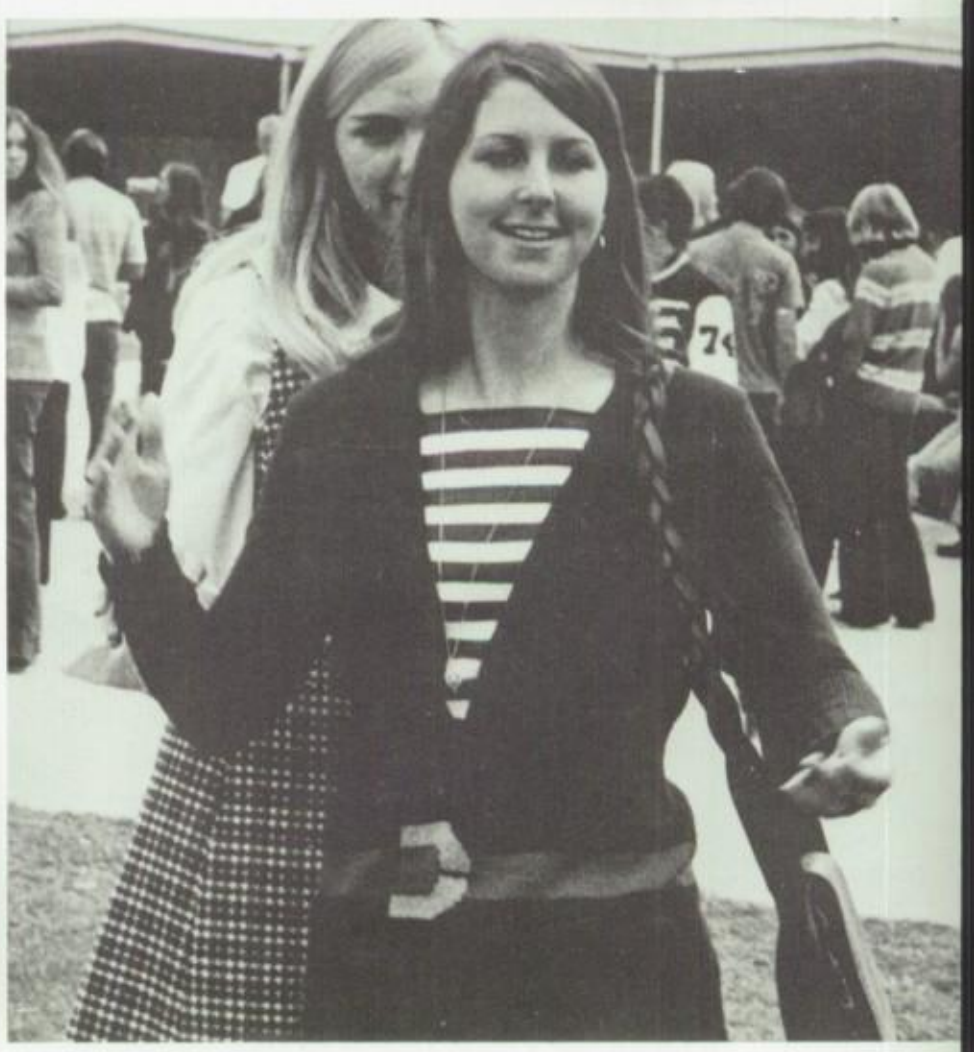
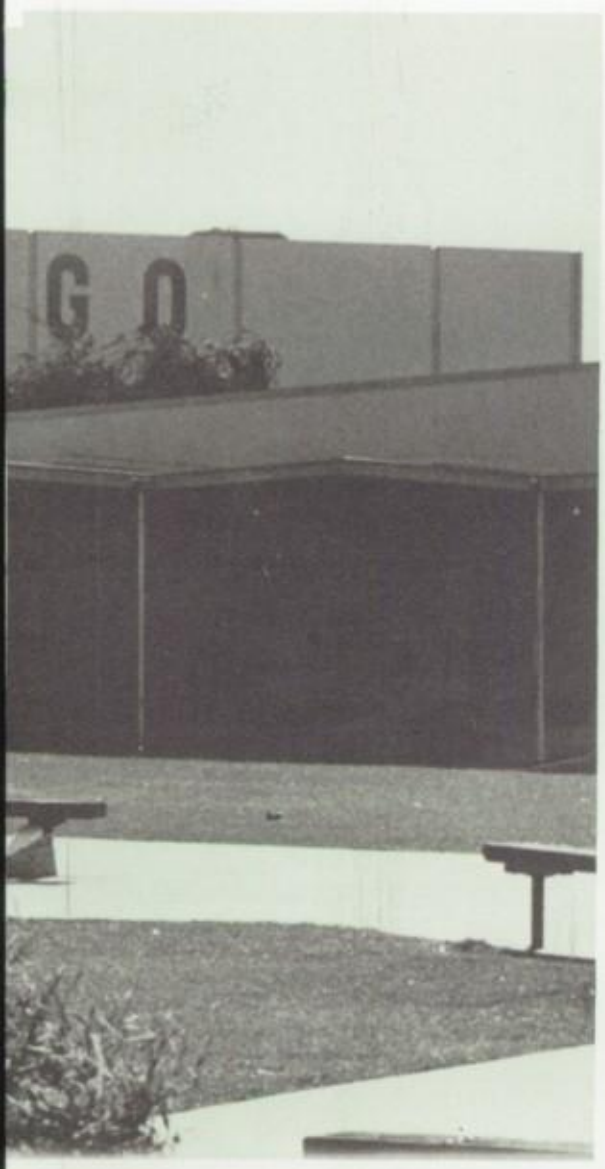
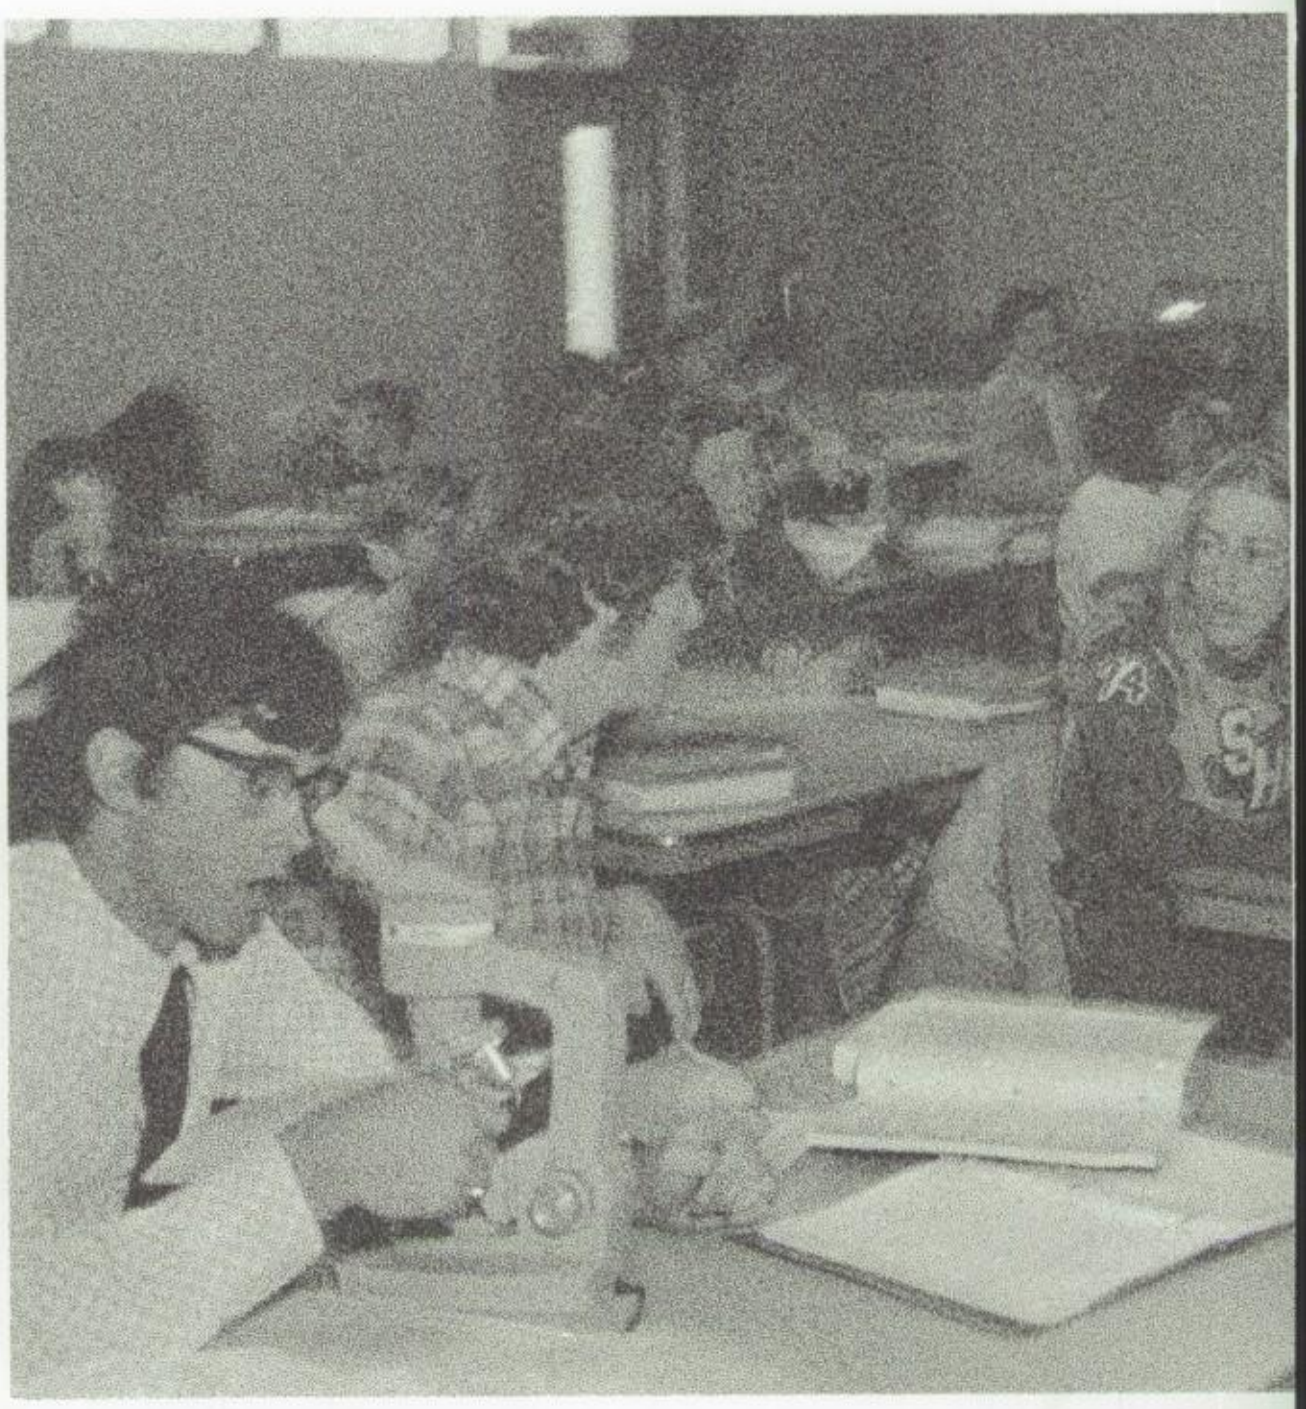
SANTIA

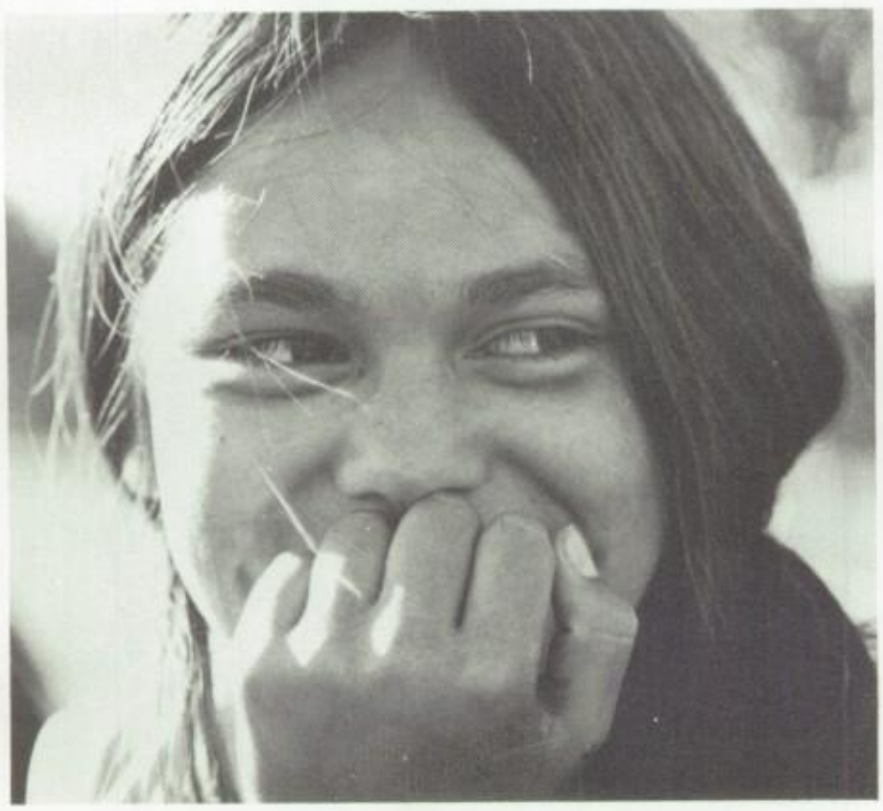




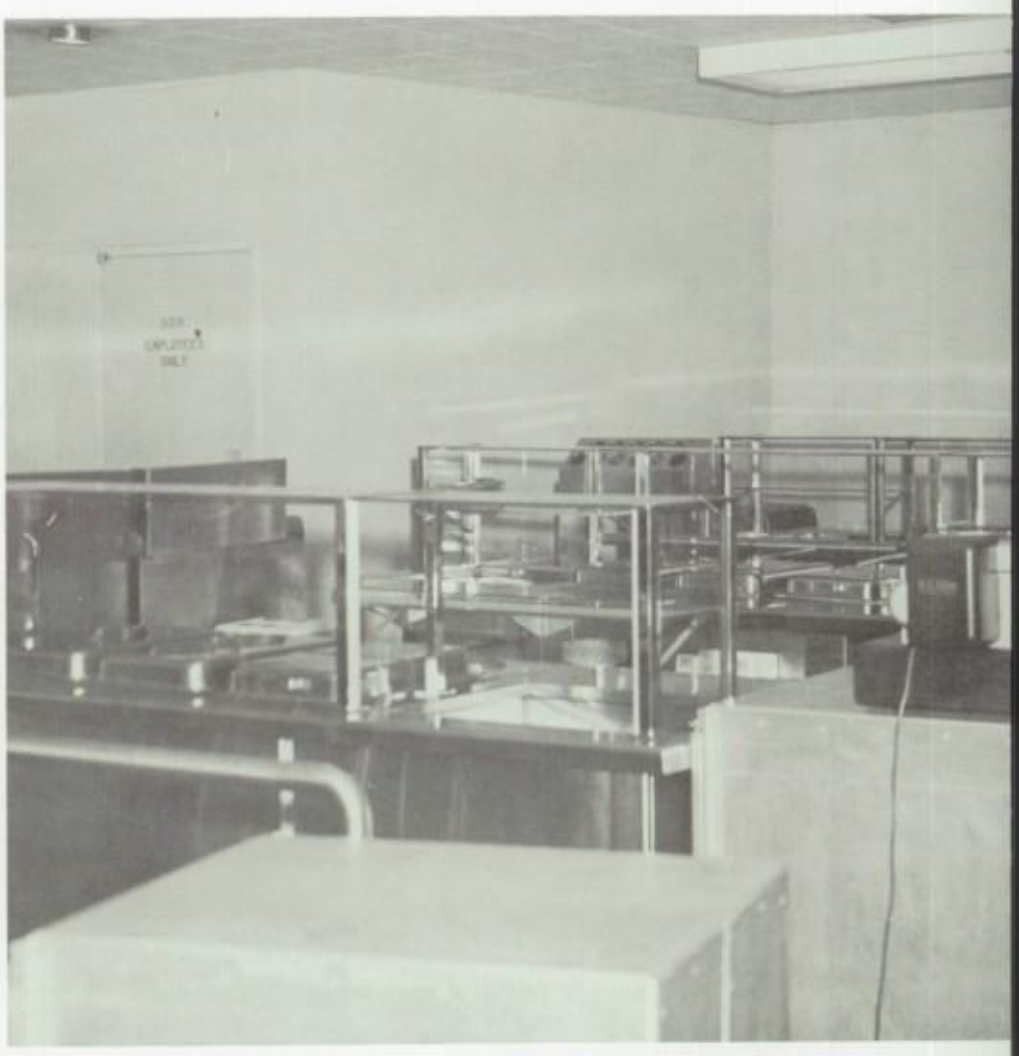
I looked at me one day, one day,
And made a strange discovery;
I am not me at all, at all,
But all this that pretends it's me.

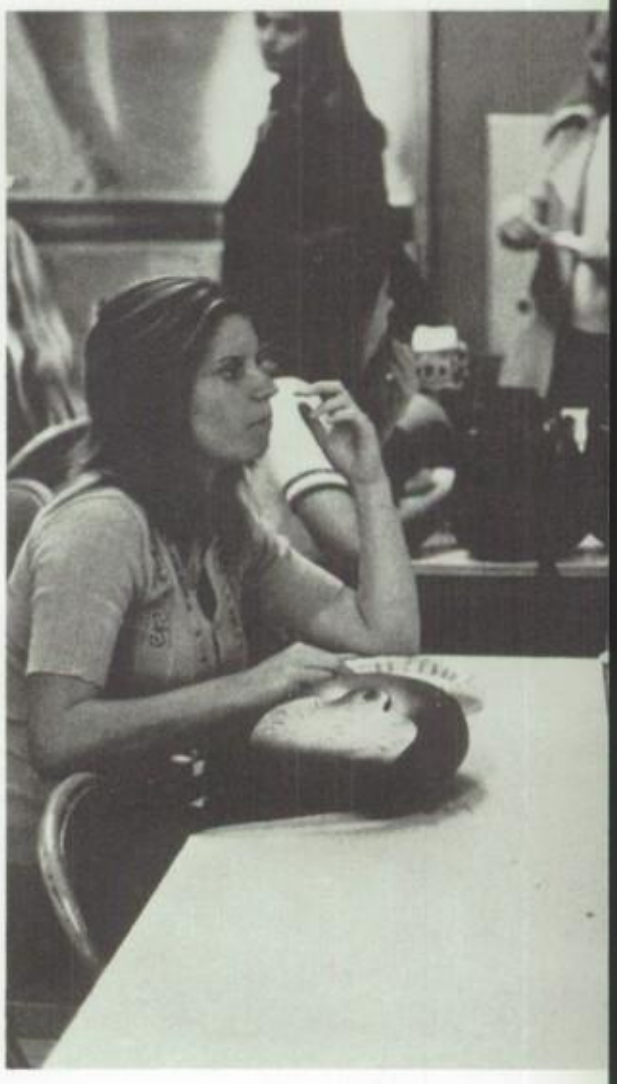
WIN!





I am a laugh that some one liked,
I am a walk that I acquired;
I am a scent of long-gone hours,
Of lullaby and dreams half-fired.





I am a scrap of poetry,
I am a prayer I learned to lisp;
I am that hidden unnamed fear,
I am the first shy-given kiss.

This year Santiago's sports program was very successful. Our Varsity Football team had its best record in the history of the school. They were 8-1 with a heartbreak loss in C.I.F. - 14-10.

Our Basketball program also prospered as our J.V. team won the league with an astounding 20 - 2 record.

With achievements like this, Santiago's sports picture appears bright.

Class officers are as follows: President, Mike Henessy; Vice-President, Dean Berry; Secretary, Shiela Jackson; Treasurer, Tamie Alveraz. The class advisors are Mr. Gainer and Mr. Zinn.

Capricornians are by nature quiet, thoughtful, serious, deep-minded, practical, economical, and possessed of good reasoning ability. They act with great dignity and hold a rather high self-esteem. They are particular in all that they do as they aspire to climb higher on the ladder of self-advancement. They seldom give up on anything they want, even though they are frequently disappointed. Because of their "never say die" natures, it is not uncommon for them to eventually achieve their goals. They are inclined to experience deep depression at times.

The Sun in Aquarius often develops the native who is basically quiet, patient, reserved, determined, and eccentric in some way or ways. Often this native has ideas which are very advanced and far ahead of times. Aquarians are usually good reasoners, understanding, tolerant, friendly, generous, charitable, and humanitarian. Aquarians are more concerned with the benefit of mankind in general than with any individual's problems. They are especially susceptible to acts of kindness, and adore attention and admiration. They might even head up their own self-admiration society, if necessary. There is an interest in broad concepts as opposed to everyday detail.

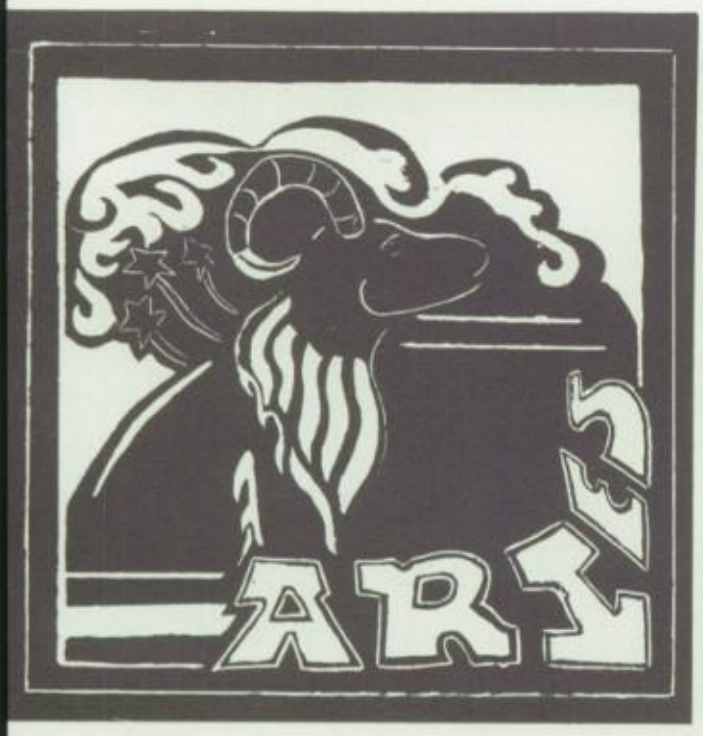
BOTTOM, Candace Howell.

Pisces is a water sign and the Pisces native generally has a kind and loving nature. They basically trust everybody until they are disappointed in so doing. Pisceans are inclined to wear their feelings on their sleeves. They are honest, amiable, overly sympathetic, and kind to anything. They are usually neat and particular, and desire order and completeness. One of their problems lies in the inability to make decisions readily. Pisceans frequently tend to timidity and may be lacking in self-confidence. As a rule they are industrious, methodical, and rather logical in their conclusions. being overly idealistic, imaginative, and inspirational often leads Pisces to emotional scars which might not affect others. There may be a tendency toward periods of extreme moodiness.



The Sun in Aries gives the native much mental energy and a quick wit. Ariens are pioneers and natural leaders, normally full of impulsive ambition, enterprise, and new ideas. Often they are fiery and quick tempered, continually ready to resent abuse or imposition to themselves or others. They are not inclined to hold grudges for long. They are persistent to a point, but may give up too soon if things don't happen quickly enough to suit them. They are not, however, easily discouraged. They often rush in where angels fear to tread.

A Taurus Sun inclines the native to be self-reliant, determined, persistent, stable, firm, stubborn, careful, and concerned with outcomes. Taureans are especially sensitive to pain, emotional as well as physical. By nature they are as gentle as a cow, but can be as reckless as a bull in a china shop when pushed to real anger. Taurus can be stubborn to the point of being unyielding, and can be quite secretive, but is normally highly practical and constructive. Often the main interests are materialistic in nature. They like money, comfort, security, and all the "good" things of life.

Dan,

Geminians are basically changeable by nature. Most natives are sympathetic, kind-hearted, and affectionate. Gemini is an experimenter, and investigator, a quick reasoner, and a researcher, all talents which can lead to writing. Gemini must be busy, and may work at two or more jobs or hobbies at the same time. Gemini is variable, inquiring, and doubtful by nature. Often they marry more than once, or in some way lead a double life. Good conversationalists, they often possess a charming and ready sense of humor.

The Sun in Cancer reflects a quiet, reserved, retiring and highly sensitive individual, but one who loves publicity. Cancerians are usually quite versatile, changeable, and moody. They are subject to frequent "ups and downs" in attitudes, vocations, and love. They are, none-the-less, determined in their goals and opinions. Cancers' highly receptive nature makes them easily influenced by their environment. They usually are industrious, prudent, frugal, sympathetic, and highly sensitive to any criticism. There is love for the home, mother, and the past. Often Cancerians accumulate a lot of money.

The Leo Sun gives the native an active mind, a good nature, generosity, and normally many friends because of these qualities. The Leo Sun is a natural leader, ambitious, independent, determined, persistent, honest, and highly industrious. Leos are quick to anger, but may be just as quickly appeased. Normally there is a "sunny" disposition, and a strong tendency for being frank, candid, outspoken, direct, and to the point in all matters. Leo is forceful and greatly appreciates (and demands) recognition and admiration. They are magnetic personalities who are especially good at "selling" themselves and their ideas to others. They have an unquenchable thirst to "show off".

The Virgo native is usually modest, thoughtful, serious, contemplative, industrious, and desirous of refining the mind through acquiring knowledge. The Sun here highlights study, reasoning ability, and good use of language. Virgo has a very quick temper, but would rather talk things out than fight. There is an inborn desire for cleanliness, order, and system in everything. Virgo is idealistic but practical, frugal yet speculative. Virgos would have others think they are "pure," but this is not always the whole story. Virgo has a good mind, but often lets concern with detail spoil the overall view. Highly critical, they are perfectionists by nature.

The Libra native loves beauty, tranquility, justice, peace, and harmony. Libra is basically courteous, pleasant, agreeable, and highly sensitive to the feelings and wishes of others. As a rule Libras are even-tempered, affectionate, and quite sympathetic. The true Libra is a natural go-between and peacemaker. They highly dislike any work which might get them "dirty". They like to see order, balance, symmetry in the world, and work as much as they can to bring about such a state of conditions. They may be interested in law, chemistry, and accounting, anything to maintain "balance."

Scorpios are intense individuals with strong characteristics and shrewd, quick judgments. The native is critical, suspicious, skeptical, but highly enterprising, tenacious, secretive, and possessed of a strong determination. Scorpios are rather fond of the sensuous and material pleasures of life. They look for the "buttered side" of the bread. They are inclined to mind their own in matters of business, but are frequently nosey in other's personal lives. They make excellent detectives and investigators. In speech Scorpios are frequently direct and blunt, and may even be sarcastic and forceful. They normally possess the drive and desire to succeed at whatever they set their minds to do.

The Sagittarius Sun normally produces a jovial, cheery nature, and a person who is hopeful, generous, and charitable. Sagittarians are self-reliant, frank, honest, ambitious, outspoken, persevering to a point, and basically optimistic. They will follow if properly asked, but will not be pushed an inch. There is a strong and independent will. They have the ability to "hit-the nail right on the head" with what they say, usually without concern as to how others will regard what they say. Sagittarius is sincere, honorable, earnest, aspiring, energetic, and is possessed of good foresight. Sagittarians frequently are quite "lucky".
